CLASH ON STREET CLEANING PLAN

Assessing Ordinance Repealed After Heated Argument

FLUSHER MAY BE PURCHASED

Ordinances to Improve 23 Streets Are Passed

Question as to whether or not the city should continue to assess property owners for street cleaning expenses when street cleaning is not being carried on by the city, precipitated a lengthy argument on the merits of the case between Commissioners H. L. Beckenridge and John A. Harley at the city commission meeting Monday night. Arguments started during discussion for the purchase of a street flusher costing approximately $8,000, when an opinion of City Solicitor Paul T. Landis was read, indicating that the city cannot issue bonds for such an expenditure and that a street flusher can only be acquired by expenditure of proceeds of the general tax levy for public service funds.

Ordinance for purchase of a flusher was submitted a week ago and the city solicitor was instructed to draw up the necessary legislation. Following his opinion Monday night, Beckenridge offered a motion to repeal the street cleaning ordinance as passed some time ago providing that property owners along streets where street cleaning is done be assessed, and that a new ordinance be prepared.

Harley jumped to his feet and declared it is not right to assess property owners along streets where cleaning is not being done. "I want to see the streets cleaned, but if there is any way to get the money to buy a flusher I make a motion that the motion by Beckenridge be reconsidered," Harley said.

Beckenridge withdrew his motion and seconded the motion offered by Harley, declaring, "I don't think we should tear down constructive legislation unless we have another solution." The ordinance was repealed.

City Manager C. A. Bingham said the only solution now is for the city to buy a street flusher on the installment plan the present equipment and the system now being used is inadequate and expensive.

SEVENTH CHARTER AMENDMENT

Amendment to the city charter requiring city candidates for city election to file their petitions for places on the primary ballot 60 days instead of 30 days before such election will be submitted the voters at the November election. City Solicitor Paul T. Landis said the amendment would not affect the coming election.

Twenty ordinances providing for the improvement of 23 city streets, representing an expenditure of $250,000, were passed by the commission and contracts will be let Friday, July 6. Streets to be improved are:

Haller-st. Main to McDonnell-st.; Mich.-st. Pheasant to Calumet-av.; North-st. Woodlawn-av. to Greenwood-av.; Market-st. Shawnee to Dewey-av.; Wayne-st. from Cole-st. to Kenilworth-av.; Leland-av. College-av. to Cole-st.; Central-av. Wayne-st. to Pennsylvania railroad; Lowell-av. Jenkins-av. to Glenwood-av.; Cole-st. to High-st. to Spring-st.; Orena-av. Entrance to south end of Orena-av.; Bobb-av. Wayne-st. to West-st.; West-av. Wayne-st. to Pennsylvania railroad; McDonnell-st. Grand-av. to Wayne-av.; Jameson-av. High-st. to North-st.; Cole-st. North-st. to Wayne-st.; West North-st. Cole-st. to Woodlawn-av.; Woodlawn-av. High-st. to Alton-av.; S. Union-st. Second-st. to Third-st.; W. Eureka-st. McDonnell-st. to Nye-st.; Oakwood-av. Dewey-st. to the end; State-st. High-av. to first alley west; High-av. Cole-st. to Woodlawn-av.; Cole-st. Alton-av. to north side of Rich-st.

That the Lima Street Railway Co. is not complying with city ordinance No. 1440, known as the Lima Street Railway franchise, in the matter of street improvements, was indicated in a communication presented by Manager Bingham.

Bingham said the ordinance provides that the city shall give the company four months notice in advance at the beginning of paving, in order that the company can secure necessary equipment and materials, and that the company shall within four months install at its own expense necessary foundations and tracks as will enable the city to proceed with paving.

On February 3, I notified the company that the city intended to pave Grand-av. from Metcalf-st. to a point 400 feet west of Baxter-st. The four-month period expired Saturday and not a stroke of work has been done by the company, while the city has been paying for the water from the city has not even been acknowledged," Bingham's letter reads.

Communication further states the company wished to substitute crushed stone for concrete and asked the city to build concrete headers to hold city paving and leave the roadbed alone.

Alone giving the city solicitor power to act in the matter was unanimously passed.

TAXI FARE IS PUZZLE

Reporter Finds Rates, Unregulated, Vary

TAXICAB rates in Lima are an uncertain quantity. There is as much difference in rates charged patrons as there is in the zones set up by the companies to determine their fare.

This condition was found by The Lima News last night when a reporter for this paper patronized the four leading cab companies within an hour over the same route and between the same points. He was charged 50 cents a ride by two companies and 25 cents a ride by the other two.

There are no city regulations on fare to be charged, altho the new license ordinance now being considered provides a general license on taxicab companies.

The city does not prescribe zones nor fix rates. This is left to the operators who have been juggling their rates so frequently in the last few months that the public is not able to keep up with the changes.

One company that operates two taxicab lines under different names charges twice as much in certain zones for the same service on one line as it does on the other.

Here is the News reporter's story of his experience last night:

BY A NEWS REPORTER.

I rode in four different taxis last night between the same points—Green's Public drug store, N. Main-st., and Allen's drug store, 201 S. Jameson-av.—and paid twice the fare in two cabs as I did in the others. My trips were made within an hour, beginning about 8 p. m.

I called a Checker cab from Green's drug store and went to Allen's drug store. I paid 50 cents for this ride, receiving a receipt from the driver.

At Allen's, I called a Yellow cab and returned to the place from which I started. I was charged 50 cents for this trip and received a receipt.

Then travel became cheaper. I called a Manhattan cab and started on the third leg of my journey. It cost me 25 cents.

I returned in a Red Top cab, and that cost me 25 cents. Receipts for the fare were given by drivers of the last two cabs.

All cabs traversed the same route in going and coming. I questioned drivers concerning zones and found that they vary like the prices. I was not able to learn from drivers why these zones varied so greatly, but I found that in some cabs you can ride only a few blocks for 25 cents and that the fare then doubles.

I found that prices vary more now than at any time since a taxicab war and price slashing started among the companies here a few months ago.

MIDWEST HARD HIT BY TORRID WAVE

Many Prostrations In Various Cities Are Reported

FOUR DIE AT CLEVELAND

No Immediate Relief Held Out by Weather Bureau

(BULLETIN)

CINCINNATI — (Associated Press.) — An unidentified man, about 60 years old, believed to be a victim of the heat, collapsed on the street here today and died in a patrol wagon on the way to a hospital. Three heat victims were being treated at the general hospital today. They were overcome yesterday and last night. Many persons finding their homes too hot for comfort slept in the downtown parks last night. A slight breeze tempered the heat today. The weather bureau said the maximum mark of 93 degrees registered yesterday would not be exceeded today.

CLEVELAND — (Associated Press.) — John Konopka, 13, and John Abramowski, 15, were drowned in the old Ohio canal, near Cuyahoga Heights this morning when they went in swimming to escape the heat. Police recovered the bodies. This brings the total deaths attributable directly or indirectly to heat waves in Cleveland and suburbs to four victims within the past 24 hours.

CHICAGO — (Associated Press.) — Scant relief was in prospect today from the hot weather in many of the southwestern, east central and Gulf states. Official forecasts as a whole predicted continued unsettled weather with little change in temperature.

The heat wave descended early yesterday, taking a toll of death and prostrations. It had been forming for some time, the weather bureau reported, over the central and southern part of the United States and is here to stay for a while.

In Chicago seven deaths were attributed indirectly to the heat. Numbers of persons were prostrated and thousands were driven to the bathing beaches by a record 81 degrees temperature. Violent thunderstorms in Minnesota and Wisconsin failed to abate the sizzling heat in that section of the country. One man was killed during a thunderstorm at Madison, Wis., and Milwaukee reported one prostration. The maximum temperature at St. Paul, Minn., was 84 and that at Milwaukee 90.

At St. Louis, Mo., one man died from heat prostration, the record there for the day being 90 degrees.

HOTTEST POINTS
The hottest points in the United States were El Paso, Texas, and Phoenix, Ariz., both of which reported high temperatures of 96. Temperatures of 90 degrees and above were common and there were few cities which escaped without experiencing 80 and higher.

The east also got its portion of hot weather. Parkersburg, W. Va., Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Raleigh, N. C., recording 90 degrees or more.

The Pacific coast and sections of the mountain belt experienced no discomfort.

HEAT TO CONTINUE

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press.) — All Ohio was scheduled to swelter in midsummer heat again today and tomorrow with no immediate indications of a break in the heat wave.

The official forecast gave no promise of cooling showers and predicted continued arid weather for tonight and tomorrow.

Yesterday's temperatures equalled or surpassed previous temperatures registered this year, the heat being general throughout the state. The mercury registered 91 here, the highest for the year.

Lima Swelters; No Prostrations Recorded Here

Despite numerous deaths throughout Ohio as a direct result of heat prostration, Lima, altho sweltering under a torrid sun for three days, has not had a single case, so far as is reported.

With the temperature hovering around 90 degrees since Saturday, Lima is experiencing the hottest spell of the summer. And weather indications are that Old Sol will continue to assert himself. Indications for Ohio are fair and continued warmer for Tuesday and Wednesday.

Monday was the hottest day of the year. Temperature reached 95 degrees. Temperature at 8 a. m. Tuesday was 87 degrees and was continuing to climb.

Local hospitals have not received any patients suffering from heat prostration so far.

Dr. J. J. Sutter, county health commissioner, said humidity was the principal cause of heat prostration. His advice is to keep the air moving in the home and do not allow it to become stagnant. "Electric fans or hand fans are valuable to keep the air moving," said Dr. Sutter. He also advised using cool water, rather than iced drinks.

TEN TOWNS WIPED OUT BY LAVA

Eruption of Mount Etna Increases in Violence

100,000 PERSONS HOMELESS

Great Fiery Streams Sweep Everything in Path

CATANIA, Sicily.—From the path of five fiery, obliterating avalanches of lava, thousands of Sicilian farmers are fleeing with their families, animals and household goods today while the violent eruptions of Mount Etna that have rendered nearly 100,000 persons homeless, continue.

Already ten little townships have been seared into oblivion beneath the devastating flow which gains in speed as fresh explosions and earth tremors shake the volcano's base.

The advancing Lava walls, thousands of feet wide, 30 to 40 feet high, are carrying along great incandescent rocks, weighing tons.

Blistering heat precedes the on-rushing lava, human life is impossible within a mile; wells for miles around have dried up; vegetation is withering.

Still further up the mountain, like a shroud over the destruction wrought by the fiery streams, a steady downfall of ashes, hot cinders, stones and lava fragments is spreading a gaseous blanket over the entire mountain as far as Giordani. ROADS CLOGGED

As the panicky exodus from threatened towns grows in volume oads are clogged and the farmers drive their cattle, horses and beasts of burden, upon whose backs is everything they could remove from before the lava, across fields and down drying river beds, in their haste.

Inhabitants of towns that have not yet felt the heat of the descending masses, but whence the uninterrupted incandescent display of giant fireworks from Etna's top is plainly visible, spent a night of terror.

At Piedi Monte, the entire populace camped out in the public square huddled together around a statue of St. Anthony, praying through the night. Church bells tolled incessantly, booming above the voices raised in prayer. Every now and then new thunder from the mountain top shook the village.

With the dawn inhabitants of Linguaglossa, believed doomed, held a religious procession as close as possible to the fiery 40-foot wall of lava that threatens at any moment to engulf their home. Against the apparently irresistible advance they held up a statue of St. Egidius, their patron saint, credited with having stopped a flow of lava that reached the gates of the city in 1873. The religious believe implicitly that the miracle will be repeated.

Pope Pius and King Victor Emmanuel have interested themselves in the rescue work. The king will come to Catania this evening if news from the devastated areas at Etna's base grows more alarming, while the pope has ordered all religious buildings on the island thrown open to the refugees.

GIANT LINER ON TEST TRIP

Leviathan Sails from Boston on Five Day Voyage

BOSTON — (United Press.) — The Leviathan sailed this afternoon on her five-day trial voyage. She carried nearly 600 invited guests to whom A. D. Lasker, retiring chairman of the shipping board is host. The trip is a test preparatory to the liner's entrance into trans-Atlantic passenger service on July 4, as "queen" of the American merchant marine.

The trip started under a cloud of criticism. It has been called a "junket" and a "million dollar joy ride," on the ground that such an extensive test, entailing great expense, was not necessary to prove the vessel's fitness.

So bitter did the criticism of the voyage become that President Harding finally intervened, supporting Lasker in his determination to go ahead with it.

President Harding told Lasker he "would never forgive him" if he abandoned the trip under criticism. Lasker and W. F. Gibbs, naval architect, who supervised reconditioning of the great liner, both stated the trial trip was provided for in the reconditioning contract. It is necessary, not alone to test the machinery thoroughly, but also to give the crew of nearly 1,000 a period of training. Gibbs pointed out today.

HIGHER AWNINGS TO CURB BRAIN STORMS

Big men, that is as far as stature is concerned, may soon be able to walk the downtown streets of Lima without fear of bumping their heads on awnings in front of stores.

Ordinance passed by the city commission Monday night requires that awnings must be at least six feet nine inches above the sidewalk and provides a fine for violators.

Action taken is the result of numerous complaints received by City Manager C. A. Bingham that something be done to remedy the situation. Some of the awnings, it was said, are as low as five feet eight inches above the sidewalk.

Bully Story, With Bovine The Victim

City Commission Adopts Recommendations of Chief Lanker

'Tis a bully story, with a male bovine in the stellar role, its tail flaring prominently in the tale.

Time, Monday afternoon; scene, Shawnee-rd; principal character, a bull weighing 1,450 pounds, more or less; supporting cast, city firemen.

Now for the story; read on: Ralph Fisher, city fireman, was out on Shawnee-rd Monday afternoon and found a bull from the Stone farm east of the city, wedged in a three-foot sewer opening in a gully.

He phoned headquarters and four firemen and Police Sergeant Grant hurried to the rescue. They grabbed the animal—not by the horns, as a commonplace story would have it—but by the tail.

After herculean efforts on the part of the six husky men, the bovine was released from its perilous position, uninjured, but exhausted from its struggles.

Whether the bull was trying to hide in the sewer opening, ostrich like, whether it was trying to escape from the heat of the day or was simply curious, remains a problem undecided. If the animal could talk, the mystery would be cleared.

CHANGES MADE IN POLICE RANKS

City Commission Adopts Recommendations of Chief Lanker

Recommendations of Chief of Police T. A. Lanker that certain ranks in the police department be changed were adopted by the city commission at the meeting Monday night. Proposed changes, according to Chief Lanker, were recommended for the good of the service and were based on efficiency and past loyalty of officers affected by the new ruling. Above recommendations were presented last week but were tabled.

Following are the recommendations:

Rank of captain of police to be inspector of police; chief detective to be inspector of detectives, and creation of the rank of sergeant of motor equipment, the rank to coincide with rank of inspector of detectives, for purpose of that officer having authority over officers using motor equipment.

Captain George Strick and Willis Kipker, chief of detectives, will have the rank of inspector of police and inspector of detectives, respectively. Civil service examination will be held to fill the newly-created vacancy of sergeant of motor equipment.

UTILITIES BOARD IS SUSTAINED

Supreme Court Rules Against Lima-Toledo Railway Co.

STOPS $2,750,000 FLOTATION

Fight for Funds to Buy, Revamp Lines is Lost

Permission for the Lima-Toledo Railroad Co. to issue $2,750,000 in securities, with which to pay for and reline the line, was refused by the Ohio Supreme court Tuesday.

The court's action affirmed a decision handed down by the state public utilities commission, which also refused the company's request.

Application for permission to issue the securities was made early in the year, after a group of capitalists, represented by D. J. Cable, attorney, had completed negotiations for the purchase of the road from Thomas Newhall, of Philadelphia.

The issue of securities was sought in order to purchase the railroad. Newhall bid in the entire properties of the former Ohio Electric Co., at receivers' sale held under order of Federal Judge John M. Killits, of Toledo.

Acting as a representative of the bondholders who had liens amounting to $5,665,000 against the bankrupt traction system, Newhall secured the property and has since managed to dispose of various units to interested groups.

The interurban properties were separated from the power and city car lines. The Lima-Toledo line, as its name implies, connects the two cities.

ISSUES PLANNED
In the application the company proposed to issue $2,750,000 in three groups. One million dollars of six per cent, 25 year gold bonds, $750,000 of cumulative preferred stock, bearing interest at the rate of seven per cent annually, and $1,000,000 of common stock, participating in dividends.

The railway company proposed to pay for its purchase from the sale of part of the securities and expend a large proportion of the remainder on improvements on the line.

For the first time, it is said, in the history of the state, the supreme court in making its decision in this sort of case, took into consideration the earning power of a utility, in deciding whether or not the issue of securities should be permitted.

The utilities commission in refusing the application of the company, had previously held that the earning power of the railroad was too low to warrant the issuance of so large amount of securities.

D. J. Cable, who has been active in the legal affairs pertaining to the Ohio Electric properties, had received no word concerning the decision, when told of the matter Tuesday.

He was unable to say what course will now be followed. He is sending for copies of the court's decision and will study it thoroughly before announcing further action.

Practically all of the companies now operating former O. E. properties are before the utilities commission with some sort of request for permission to market stocks and bonds. It is stated.

LARGE BANK WRECKED BY $1,500,000 THEFT

CASHIER ADMITS DEFALCATION

Kansas Institution Closed Following Discovery of Shortage

SCHOOL BONDS ARE TAKEN

Heavy Investments in Oil Properties Made by Banker

WICHITA, Kansas.—(Associated Press.)—The American State Bank, one of the strongest state banks in Kansas, closed its doors early this morning, following the discovery of the defalcation of $1,500,000 by Philip A. Drumm, cashier, the Wichita clearing house announced.

The cashier used the bank's funds to invest heavily in oil properties, bank officers stated. Drumm confessed, according to clearing house officials.

The American State Bank is 21 years old and has a capital of $150,000. Drumm has been with the institution 17 years, the last one as cashier.

DEFALCATION EXPLAINED

The relatively large defalcation was explained in part by the fact that the bank held what was said to be excess of one million dollars, Wichita school bonds. Drumm is alleged to have used these bonds. Drumm was in charge of the bond department of the bank.

Original action was deferred pending an investigation by the state bank commissioner.

The bank's surplus is listed at $250,000. Its surplus is tied up in undivided profits and an equity in the bank building are said to be $475,000.

W. N. Richardson, president of the institution, expressed belief that the depositors would suffer no loss.

Wholesale broom corn interests of Wichita were said to be the heaviest depositors. The bank held state deposits of nearly $25,000.

The alleged defalcation was discovered last night when officers of the depository checked Drumm's accounts.

Drumm was said to have invested considerable sums in the Saver Oil fields of northern Oklahoma. Whether he was or lost had not been revealed yet.

Drumm could not be found after the defalcation was announced. His mother said he was spending the night with friends. According to clearing house officials Drumm said that all personal property would be turned over to the bank.

OHIO BANK CLOSED

SANDUSKY.—(United Press.)—The doors of the First National Bank at Huron, Ohio, established 32 years ago, were not opened for business this morning.

The decision to quit business resulted from losses in loans. On some of these loans, T. M. Sprowl, 80, who had been cashier since the bank was organized, until a reorganization in February has been sued in the courts here. Sprowl is said to have lost heavily in a coal mine venture.

The bank was capitalized at $50,000 and it is believed the stockholders will lose heavily.

THREE PICKED FOR SENATE RACE

Results of Minnesota Primary Announced

ST. PAUL, Minn.—(Associated Press.)—Governor J. A. O. Preus, Republican; Magnus Johnson, Farmer-Labor, and James A. Carley, Democrat, were nominated in yesterday's primary to contest July 16 to succeed the late Knute Nelson, Minnesota's senior United States senator.

Political observers expect the main fight in the final election for the seat until March 4, 1925, to be between the governor and Johnson.

Governor Preus' lead in a field of nine continues to grow as additional returns came in today. With one-third of the state reported, the governor has a lead of more than 13,000 over Oscar Hallam, former justice of the state supreme court, his nearest opponent.

Johnson's margin over Dr. L. A. Fritzsche, mayor of New Ulm, in one-third of the state's 3,520 precincts, was $5,000.

BREEZE IS AID IN HOT SPELL

Citizens sweltering under the rays of Old Sol's hottest effort, were afforded partial relief Tuesday when a delightful breeze was stirred up, adding to the batting average of the joy of living.

State of the weather is such that circus stunts are not exactly appropriate, but Ted defies all precedent and puts his trained canine thru the paces, whether it rains, blows or boils.

The forecaster holds out no promise of relief from the torrid spell. Generally fair and continued warm tonight and Wednesday. Which means that the mercury will continue to hover around the 90 degree point on the face of the thermometer, while humanity looks on helplessly, wondering why it is that the seasons cannot be more temperate in their proclivities.

Remembrance now of the chilly conditions that featured spring all the way thru, doesn't help in any appreciable degree in cooling fevered brows, and the human family takes to vacations at lake and seashore, seeking cold drinks as aids to comfort.

There's danger of excesses in the heated period. Eat sparingly. Drink cool water rather than iced product, is the advice of physicians. If you would escape prostration.

However, as all signs fall in dry weather, there is little likelihood that health injunctions are followed to the letter. By the way, a cooling shower would be very acceptable.

BINGHAM FAVORS BUS LINES

City Manager C. A. Bingham in commenting on the action of the supreme court of Ohio, in reversing the decision of the court of appeals regarding home rule for cities in the regulation of busses, mentioning specifically Perryburg, said the city welcomes bus lines entering Lima.

Bingham said rather than curtail transportation, a city should get all the transportation lines leading in to the city possible. He said, however, he favors regulating busses and charging a fee that will defray cost of inspecting busses, examining drivers and taking other precautions.

The supreme court ruling is the result of a decision handed down by the court of appeals. Perryburg passed an ordinance forbidding any busses to stop within the city limits. A bus operator, plying between Bowling Green and Toledo, challenged the right and obtained an injunction in common pleas court prohibiting enforcement of the ordinance.

The same principle of home rule was affirmed in the case of Robert Murphy of Toledo. Murphy had held a license to operate a jitney bus over Toledo streets, but was refused when he applied for a renewal. The Lucas-co courts found for the city and the supreme court today affirmed their judgments.

BURGLAR ENTERS FOUR HOMES

One Person Believed Responsible for Residence Robberies

LOOT WORTH NEAR $50 TAKEN

Watch, Coat, Money, Purse Are Missing in West Side

Lima police Tuesday were seeking a man of small stature who is held responsible for breaking into and robbing four homes within two blocks on W. Elm-st and State-st, about midnight Monday. The loot probably had a total value of $50.

The first home entered was that of Frank A. Burkhardt, 217 W. Elm-st, former mayor. Entrance was gained by cutting the wire from a screen in a side window.

Burkhardt had been home since about 10:30 p. m. and before retiring had placed his coat on a chair on the first floor of the house. The robber took the coat and got about $3.50 in change in a coin purse.

Persons in all of the homes failed to hear the intruder and did not discover he had been there until after arising Tuesday morning.

A sliding screen at the home of Dr. Donald Sullivan, 322 W. Elm-st, was raised and a watch with the initials D. S., or D. S. H., on the back, a chain with Masonic charm and a check book on the City Bank were removed.

The burglar found a flower pot in the yard of the Sullivan home and tried to use it to stand on to get into the home of John Hawisher, thru a window, at 320 W. Elm-st. This apparently failed and he re-entered the Sullivan home to get a table which was found under a window of the Hawisher home. It was a very light table and the person standing on it must have been of very small build. Detectives' Chief Willis Kipker, who investigated the robberies with Detective Tom Lawler, believes. This fact, with the finding of footprints in a flower bed at the Hawisher home, gave police the clue to the man's stature. He worked in his stocking feet the footprints disclosed.

Clothing, $1 in change, a fountain pen, gold pencil and other odds and ends were taken from Dr. E. C. Yingling's home at 720 State-st. Entrance was gained thru a side window.

Men giving their names as J. Heyl, 18, of Henry, O., and Homer Bell, 34 Pittsburg, Pa., were held at the police station as suspects Tuesday morning, but police said that they did not believe these men were connected with the robberies. They were picked up during the early hours of the morning.

TAX PAYMENTS CLIMB; TIME EXTENDED MONTH

More than $50,000 rolled into the coffers of Allen-co Monday and Tuesday, when taxpayers stormed the court house to pay June taxes.

Employees at the county treasurer's office took in the money from early morning to closing time at night. A never diminishing line of citizens, armed with check books and fat purses waited their turn to pay.

One more month of grace was granted late comers Tuesday, when the county commissioners by a unanimous vote, extended the time for paying to July 20. Had not the action been taken, the last day for paying, without incurring the penalty, would have been Wednesday.

WAR BREWING BETWEEN COMMISSIONERS, COURT OVER WHISKY DISPOSAL

Refusal of Judge Emmett J. Jackson, of criminal court, to consider claims of the District Tuberculosis hospital for a part of the confiscated Scotch whisky taken from Tim Murphy, may cause controversy between the court and the county commissioners.

The county officers declare they have no fault to find with the plan of the court in dividing the whisky among the hospitals, provided it proves to be suitable for medicinal purposes.

They believe, however, that inasmuch as the liquor was captured by county officials and the court is in part supported by the county, a county institution is entitled to a portion of the spoils, along with St. Rita's and City hospital.

In the meantime, Sheriff Harvey Crosson has the 23 bottles of rum under lock and key in the jail strongbox. He announced Tuesday he will take up the matter of disposing of both whisky and the Buick coupe, with Judge Jackson, soon.

REMOVAL OF SOUTH STEPS AT COURT HOUSE PROJECTED

Plans for removing the south steps at the courthouse and using the abutment and east entrance exclusively, are under consideration by the county commissioners.

Frank Leech, architect, who has been in charge of various alterations made in the building, is investigating the possibilities.

"I am studying the building in every way to find how to utilize waste space," he declared. "These steps take up too much room, and the space is valuable."

The south entrance will not be needed, in the opinion of Commissioner John Thompson, when an elevator is installed.

signed by 14 property owners, and a similar protest against the improvement of W. High-st, between Cole-st and Rosedale-av, were ordered filed and the city instructed to proceed with the proposed improvements.

Property owners on W. High-st, between Rosedale and Woodlawn-avs, declared the present brick pavement in fairly good condition and fully paid for and that they felt they should not be burdened with further assessments, and that they will resist the assessment of any part of cost of repaving as proposed by the city.

Bingham said the pavement was laid in 1892 at a cost of $1.18 per square yard. He said the city intends only to remove the surface and place an inch and a half of asphalt on top. This improvement will assure a good paved road from the outskirts of the city to Main-st, he said.

Property owners who signed the second protest declare the street, altho in a deplorable condition now, is good until sewer and water lines are put down. They feel that the street should be put back in the same condition it was found by contractors and without any cost to property owners.

ASK ALLEY BE VACATED

Communication from the board of education stated that the board has bought the lot adjoining Washington school building on the east side, and is desirous of having the alley running from Kibby south 150 feet vacated, as the school property now is on both sides of the alley. City solicitor was instructed to prepare necessary legislation.

Petition signed by 14 draymen asking the city to designate certain parking place on Main-st for express and baggage stands, similar to taxi cabs, was referred to the city manager and solicitor.

Petitions regarding laying of sewers on Third-st, from Sugar-st to Hughes-av; Fourth-st, from Sugar to Hughes, and Catalpa-av, from Sugar to St. Johns-rd, were referred to city manager and city engineer.

Report of the estimating board for the improvement of W. Spring-st, from Jameson-av to Cole-st, was accepted and ordered filed.

COMMISSIONERS PLAN TO BUILD TWO LARGE BRIDGES

Estimates sought for construction of two large bridges in Lima during the coming year were submitted to the county commissioners Tuesday.

Plans call for expenditure of $70,000 on each of two bridges. One at Bellefontaine-av, and the other at E. High-st and Ottawa river.

Present structures have been condemned by county, city and state inspectors, and High-st bridge has been closed to traffic. Both bridges are located on county roads and for this reason can be entirely built by county funds, it is stated. The bridges will be advertised for sale within the coming week, Commissioner J. W. Thompson declared.

Estimates for the cost of two country bridges totaling $4,500 were submitted Tuesday. The Gomer cemetery bridge will cost $2,000, according to the estimate, and the Brennenman bridge, a half mile west and south of Elida, will cost $2,500. They will not be let for some time.

JORDAN FUNERAL

Funeral services for Frank Jordan, 50, of 968 W. North-st, who died Sunday at his home after an illness of several months from complications, will be held Thursday at 8:30 a. m. at St. Rose church. Interment—Gethsemani.

ACCIDENT VICTIM NOT LOCATED

Lima Youth Missing Since Mishap at Delphos Sunday

Loyal Males, 17, of this city, who disappeared from Delphos following an automobile accident Sunday in which his companion, Roy Neal, 13, of S. Atlantic-av, was seriously injured, had not been located Tuesday.

Local police were working with police from all parts of Ohio in an effort to find some trace of the young man.

The two boys were riding south on Main-st in Delphos in an automobile and are believed not to have seen a Pennsylvania Railroad train approaching from the east until too late. As Neal saw it, he swerved to the right and his auto struck it just back of the engine.

Neal has been removed to his home in Van Wert. Males disappeared immediately after the accident, either thru fear or suffering mentally as a result of injuries received in the collision, it is believed by officials.

GEILEN-HITCHENS WEDDING

Mary Geilen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Geilen, 730 W. High-st, and Leo R. Hitchens, Oren-av, were united in marriage at St. Rose church Tuesday morning, by Rev. Bouschere. Thirty guests were entertained at a feast at the home of parents of the bride after the ceremony. The couple left for a wedding trip to Buffalo and New York City and will be at home to their friends at 730 W. High-st after their return in about 15 days.

The Present and The Future

YOUR MONEY SHOULD BE SO PLACED THAT IT WILL BE SAFE BOTH TODAY AND TOMORROW.

In the present period of unusual business activity and high prices in all lines, it is more necessary than ever to be careful in investing money. Five per cent interest is a liberal return where safety is absolute.

Among the financial institutions of Lima we are known as conducting a conservative business and paying five per cent on deposits. We place the additional profits into a adequate reserve, now more than $2,000.00, as a further protection for our depositors.

We propose to continue these policies and upon the basis of Safety we seek your account.

City Commission Delays Action on Revised Ordinance

SPECIAL MEETING THURSDAY

Many Affected by Provisions—Penalty for Violation

Members of the city commission will hold a special meeting Thursday at 7 p. m. to discuss the proposed city license ordinance which provides that certain business establishments, occupations and trades pay an annual license fee.

This ordinance has been before the city commission more than a year but has never been adopted. Three weeks ago City Solicitor Paul T. Landis presented a revised license ordinance containing 10 changes. It was presented to the commission a week ago and passed first reading. When presented Monday night Commissioner H. L. Broderick moved the ordinance be adopted. There was no second.

ACTION IS DELAYED
City commissioners agreed to hold up the ordinance until Thursday. City Manager C. A. Blingham said the rules can be suspended and the ordinance passed Thursday by the commission. If passed, it will become effective July 1.

The ordinance will require fees from the following: soft drink places, $25; taxicab companies, $50 for first machine and $5 for each additional machine; taxi drivers, $3; proprietors of theatres, $15; peddlers and hucksters, $25; solicitors, $10; bill posters, $25; private detective agencies, $25; carrying explosives, $1; motion picture operators, $3; electricians, $25; garbage collectors, $1 and purveyors of milk $2.

Ordinance provides a fine of $25 for violations.

NEW SYSTEM CLASSIFIES ARRESTS MADE BY POLICE

New system for tabulating and classifying arrests, complaints and other police work has been installed by the Lima police department, Police Chief Lanter announced Tuesday. The new plan requires one sheet of a book each day, bearing the number of arrests for each different crime, a place for showing officers who are off and on duty, the number of arrests in each degree of crime a year ago, number released and other information.

This record is kept up to date daily and is in the form of a loose leaf book.

Dayton police department used a system somewhat similar to this, but the report sheets have been modified to meet local needs. The Lima police department has been endeavoring to get this report sheet since the first of the year, but there was some delay in the printing.

LIMA CHAUTAUQUA GIVEN IMPETUS

Guarantors Hear Outline of Program at Dinner Meeting

More than 100 guarantors of Lima's chautauqua association were present at dinner at the Barr hotel Monday evening to perfect plans for the annual chautauqua which opens July 16 and continues to July 22.

Ira Longworth, president, was toastmaster. L. E. Ludwig, secretary, urged support of the summer entertainment.

J. E. Bumstead, assistant manager of the Redpath system, briefly outlined the merits of each of the numbers selected for the Lima program.

Advertising literature and tickets were distributed to each of the guarantors at the close of the dinner session. The guarantors voted to retain the community sing which has been conducted at past chautauques.

The chautauqua tent will be pitched on the Baxter homestead public school grounds at Elm-st and Elmwood-pl. With the exception of the first and last days, three programs will be given each day, morning, afternoon and evening.

Included in the list of musical attractions are the Grosjean Harmonic-Kylophone Co., Geoffrey O'Hara and artists, Zedler quintet, National male quartet and Victor's band of New York City.

Lecturers who will address Lima audiences at the big tent are Granville Jones, Wallace Bruce Ambsbury, Edward Tomlinson, Ben A. Arneson, William Dallas Campbell, Hon. W. L. Harding, of Iowa and Dr. Frank L. Loveland.

CLLED VICIOUS NAMES, WIFE ASSERTS IN SUIT

Names so vicious that she could not live with her mate drove Clara Hoover from Thomas E. Hoover, to whom she was wedded at Bellefontaine in 1900, according to averments made in a divorce action filed in court Tuesday.

Mrs. Hoover is the mother of six children ranging from Alice, a babe in arms to Martha, 17. Hoover, she asserts, failed to support her or children, and called her such harsh names that she fled from him.

CLUB FEDERATION MAY ADVOCATE NEW HOME FOR FEEBLE MINDED OF STATE

Resolutions by the local Federation of Women's clubs, asking that Governor Donahy use a $200,000 fund appropriated by the legislature two years ago for the erection of a home for feeble-minded are a probability, Dr. Josephine Peirce stated Tuesday.

A request was made Monday by Mrs. Cornelius Selover, president of the State Federation of Women's clubs, to this effect, Dr. Peirce was informed.

State federations have tendered such resolutions in the past, it was announced, and it is probable that pressure will be brought to bear upon Governor Donahy to use the money before the appropriation lapses, June 30.

Women of the state are uniting in a demand that a home be purchased in the northern part of the state. The $200,000 fund has been available for two years and was re-appropriated at the last session of the legislature but was vetoed by Governor Donahy.

ALLEN-CO WELFARE BODY DECLARES FOR PERMANENT HEAD AT LANCASTER HOME

Resolutions adopted by the Allen-co Child Welfare association asking for civil service examinations, are in connection with the Boys' Industrial home at Lancaster and not for the Girls' home at Delaware, Dr. Josephine Peirce, president of the association stated Tuesday.

The resolutions ask for immediate examination in order that a vacancy existing at the institution for nine months be filled permanently. The vacancy has been filled only temporarily during that time.

FLOWING GOLD

Calvin Gray hates Colonel Henry Nelson of Dallas and hires three men to watch Nelson's activities in the oil fields. Gray is in love with Barbara Parker, daughter of Tom Parker, Nelson's son-in-law. Gray has been honorably discharged from the army. Gus Briskow becomes friendly with Gray and together they buy the controlling interest in the Nelson bank. Gray and Briskow attend a meeting of the bank's directors. Gray tells the men assembled that he was honorably discharged from the army because of Henry Nelson's treachery and that later Henry had been found out and himself been dismissed.

NOW GO ON WITH STORY

"I worked a long while and I was upon the verge of success—it would have been a real accomplishment, too—when, without apparent cause, the gang took warning, scattered, the whole thing blew up. Months of work for nothing! I had made worse than a failure this time."

"You mean to accuse Henry of—of treachery of that sort?" Swope inquired.

"I do. And that's not all. Out of a clear sky charges were preferred against me. Outrageous charges! I mean that woman figured." Up to this point Gray had spoken smoothly, rapidly, but now his tone changed, his words became hesitant, jerky. "I was amazed! Jack, I called it at first. Sort of a blanket indictment, it was, charging me with inefficiency, negligence, exceeding my authority, dishonesty—and things even worse. Those were some of the least serious, the least—nasty. It was all too absurd! Being peculiarly vain and sensitive, my impulse was to shoot Henry Nelson. But I couldn't believe the charges would be taken seriously."

"Well, there was an investigation. I was court-martialed, disgraced, a good deal. I think I'd have exonerated myself on every count only for the woman—that one I spoke about. She turned the trick. I was found guilty, disgraced, sent back. Even though you are not military men, you can appreciate the extent of my dishonor."

"Well, I'll be damned!" Martin Murphy exclaimed.

"At least Henry played fair in this; he didn't betray your secret," Gage said, coldly.

"Oh, I meant to tell you that he didn't dare betray me, for he, too, came back in disgrace. The notion couldn't very well talk about the kettle."

"What?"

"Henry Nelson?"

"Impossible!"

"I mean exactly what I say. No man of his type could have lasted over there. Then, too, the story of our quarrel leaked out, that old report of mine turned up—Yes, he got the same medicine he gave me. But he had influence in Washington, and he managed to delay final action almost up to the day of the armistice. Even when he succeeded in pretty well covering up the reason for his dismissal."

"Why, even Bell doesn't know that!"

"Henry's been a terrible hero, hereabouts," said Gus Briskow. After a moment he addressed the other men. "Mr. Gray told me this, and I wanted him to tell it to you. I dunno what you-all think of his story, but I know him and I believe every word of it. What's more, I believe this bank is going to be run as well as ever it was even if I am president. A man can be president and stay at home, if he's got folks under him that know more than he does. What d'you say if we start that meetin' we been talkin' about? I'm willing to see Mr. Gray settin' in yonder at Henry's desk if you are."

"I don't see that it makes much difference whether we're willing or not," Swope confessed. "You have the votes, between you, to do about as you choose."

"Of course we have, but with Bell and Henry gone, it seems like some of their neighbors ought to stay and look out for what potatoes they've got."

"That's why I engaged you. You've been over these books before. Again there was an instant of silence, then into Gray's face there flashed a curious alertness. "Come!" he cried, sharply. "What is it?"

"I'm sorry to be the one to—"

The auditor shrugged. "If you insist on an explanation, I suppose I shall have to tell you. Perhaps it's just as well, anyhow. They say figures don't lie, but you and I know better. I only wish they didn't."

"Have you caught them lying, here?"

"I have. And—it has made me rather ill. You'd better prepare yourself for a shock."

It was nearly an hour later that Gray telephoned to Senator Lowe, the bank's attorney, and to Bennett Swope, the latter being the only member of the board available at that notice. This done, he wrote a note to Henry Nelson. In spite of his effort to control his hand, it shook when he signed his name, and on second thought he destroyed the missive. There is something ominous about the written word. If Nelson grew suspicious, he'd never come.

Gray stepped into Gus Briskow's office and asked him to call the former vice president, first, however, explaining exactly what he wished Gus to say. The ruse succeeded; then Gray returned to his own office. He drew a deep breath. With him he felt a ferocious eagerness to take fire, for it seemed to him that the day of reckoning had come. Henry's behavior was now easily understandable; the fellow was cowering in anticipation of a second blow. Well, the whip was in Gray's hands, and he proposed to use it ruthlessly—to sink the lash, to cut to the bone, to leave scars such as Henry had left upon him.

Gray, too, kept a revolver in his desk. He removed it and placed it in his pocket.

LETTER FROM LESLIE PRESCOTT TO HER HUSBAND JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT

I know you will be glad to know, dearest, that I am really having a lovely time on this visit in New York.

Mother bought Alice a very wonderful wardrobe to go abroad and dad insisted the first day I was here I should go out and buy myself a frock or two, altho I told him I did not need them and would rather have the money for other things.

I did, however, buy one evening gown and, oh Jack, it's splendid. All shimmering gold cloth except where it leaves my neck and arms quite bare. You'd love it, Jack.

The other night we were all going to the Midnight Frolic, but at the last moment Alice, who had eaten too much candy, became quite ill and mother and dad insisted that Karl Whitney and I should go on alone.

Dad told you that Karl came down to see Alice off? Honestly, Jack, I think he is quite smitten on the child and she is simply dying about him.

I went with him, dear, and had a perfectly wonderful time, but I wished for you every minute.

Do you remember how, before we were married, you always insisted after I had used the lipstick on my mouth, in looking me over to see if "the color were on straight"—as you said. Well! At the table I took out my vanity case, as I always do with you, and repaired my makeup a little.

INCREASE IN BANK SAVINGS NOTED

Forbes Gives Pointers to Offset Business Pessimism

BIG JUMP IN IMPORTS

Rails Enjoying Almost Unprecedented Purchasing Power

(By B. C. FORBES)

NEW YORK (Special)—What is happening businesswise is very plain. Briefly, things are drifting. What is going to happen is not plain.

Thus there is excellent opportunity for the exercise of business statesmanship.

When business settles down to a definite trend, management does not call for so much judgment as is needed under conditions such as we are now experiencing. Business never stays unchanged for any long period; it is almost as restless as the sea. Without doubt, a marked trend, one way or the other, will have developed before 1923 ends.

Which direction will business take?

At the moment there is a disposition to look for quieter business, weakening prices, lower security markets, less bidding up of wages and the other things that accompany a general slackening of the business pace.

Last week brought quite a few movements along this line.

New York State reported somewhat less employment.

The security markets showed weakness.

Steel prices declined appreciably. So did lead and tin.

The wool market was distinctly easier.

There was more closing of cotton mills.

Sugar and coffee moved downward.

Against forty-nine price declines recorded by Dun's there were only twelve advances.

Wheat and cotton both moved very regularly and flour declined appreciably.

Some reductions in tire prices were announced.

Pressure to produce automobiles was relaxed.

Said Bradstreet's on Saturday: "The situation is still spotty with the trend cautious, although a big business is evidently going forward on all accounts. Weather irregularities have restricted retail trade, and wholesale buying in many lines for the future still lacks definite form, while industrial activities have continued at an active pace, thus eating into piled up orders."

Bank returns are not at variance with this view.

Has consumption fallen off as much as ordering? All indications are that it has not. This, then, is a factor of prime importance.

The country is not overstocked with goods, despite the speculative ordering which broke out, but rather abruptly terminated some months ago. In some instances cancelling has been resorted to in order to avoid undue stocking up.

Nothing is within sight to warrant the conclusion that there will be any considerable unemployment for months to come, or that there will be any pronounced recession in wages.

The notable increase in bank savings and in the amount of insurance being taken out would indicate that the great majority of the people are saving their money with more than ordinary degree of prudence—although there are plenty of other indications that nothing even remotely resembling a "buyers' strike" has set in.

Agricultural buying appears to be well maintained and new crop money will shortly come into the hands of our farming population.

Railroads are now enjoying almost unprecedented purchasing power and their needs are such that they are likely to continue to place extensive orders for some time to come.

It is perhaps significant that the general price level has receded very moderately, notwithstanding the rather sharp lull of the two last months or more.

The abnormally heavy imports of raw materials and semi-finished products should not be overlooked in trying to analyze whether dullness or activity lies ahead. The fact that these heavy imports furnish salesmen with increased inducements for buying American goods also is to be taken into account.

That the country is still far short of adequate housing facilities is universally recognized. The likelihood, therefore, is that building operations will continue on an extensive scale despite temporary strikes or other handicaps.

Auto Electric Construction is going forward on a broad scale and will continue to do so to meet prospective requirements, especially as the necessary funds can now be raised on reasonable terms.

Did you notice the announcement that all the four hundred million dollars of copper taken over by the Copper Export Association when the war ended has not been disposed of?

The time of copper market has lately improved. Finally money, credit and capital are plentiful.

What of the foreign outlook?

There may be room for differing views, but the chances would seem to favor helpful developments. The drop in the scandalously diluted German mark to 110,000 to the dollar is of less significance than the advance made towards a real basis for starting concrete settlement negotiations. Particularly encouraging is the stand taken by Britain's new premier. France cannot long continue to hold aloof without incurring international consequences she cannot well afford to invite.

On this side of the Atlantic the prospect of the early reestablishment of friendly relations with Mexico is distinctly cheering.

Then, bear in mind that mid-year is normally a period of slackening activity.

If America can go thru the summer with approximately the present amount of employment and without any more marked recession in the price level than has been experienced thus far, do not the chances favor marked revival with the approach of fall, providing crops and crop prices meanwhile prove tolerably satisfactory? Sentiment can hardly fail to be helped by the very noteworthy number of dividend increases now being announced almost daily.

Of course, the pessimists may prove to be right. If they do, they will come out better financially than those who proceed on the assumption that business is going to be good.

On the whole, however, it might not be amiss to recall at this time the memorable axiom laid down by the late J. P. Morgan: "The man who is a bear on the United States will go broke."

MAN IS DECLARED TESMER SLAYER

Suspect Disguised as Girl Identified by Widow

CHICAGO — (Associated Press)—Fred G. Thompson, said to have posed as a woman, was positively identified today, according to the police, by Mrs. Richard C. Tesmer, as the supposed woman bandit who shot and killed her husband in a holdup the night of June 5.

Although Mrs. Tesmer had told the bandit smiled when Tesmer was shot and declared she never forgot that smile and the robber's blue eyes, the police after questioning dozens of women, turned to the possibility that a man disguised as a woman had fired the fatal shot. The theory was largely based on Mrs. Tesmer's recollection that the bandit had fat hands.

Tesmer and his wife were returning in their automobile to their home on the north side and were about to turn into their garage when two persons stepped out of the shadows and pointed revolvers at them. One appeared to be a woman who took the lead in the robbery. The other was a man, Mrs. Tesmer later told the police.

The pair robbed Tesmer of a small sum after compelling the victim and his wife to get out of their car. The supposed woman bandit then ordered the other to take Mrs. Tesmer's wedding ring. She protested and Tesmer stood with his hands uplifted, helpless, but twitching with anger.

It is believed that the bandit garbed as a woman feared Tesmer was about to attack in defense of his wife and her sentiment. Her wedding ring, for the smiling bandit for a second became grim faced and fired and killed Mrs. Tesmer.

As the man fell mortally wounded and his wife collapsed on his body, the bandit pair leaped into the Tesmer automobile and drove away. The machine later was found abandoned two miles from the scene of the holdup but all trace of the robbers apparently had disappeared.

All that the police had to aid them was Mrs. Tesmer's description of the supposed woman bandit—the peculiar smile maintained almost to the instant of taking a human life, the big blue eyes and the fat hands.

Women of the underworld and others, known or suspected of having associated with or being under the influence of men of criminal tendencies or under suspicion, were hunted and trailed thru Chicago as well as in several other cities. A half dozen women or more were taken before Mrs. Tesmer. Each time she said the woman placed before her was not the slayer.

Last night Thompson, who the police said they had learned had posed as the wife of Frank Carrick, another man and a young woman in a North Side flat. Thompson wore woman's apparel and today was whisked away to the Tesmer home where the widow cried out that he was the slayer, police announced.

GALE ASKS RURAL ROUTE PATRONS TO PAINT BOXES

Requests that all rural mail boxes be painted white and that the patron's names be placed in black letters on each side, have gone from Postmaster A. E. Gale to the rural districts.

An inspection from the local department disclosed the fact that many rural mail boxes present an unsatisfactory appearance, due to the wearing of paint and rusting of the metal.

Approaches to mail boxes should be filled in with cinders and stone, the postmaster urges.

Gale requested the cooperation of rural mail patrons in the effort to improve appearance of two routes.

KICK FROM OPIUM COMES HIGH

Costs on Average of $20 a Day to be Victim

SERVED ON PLAYING CARD

Smoker Must be Adept to Get Results

(By FRED V. WILLIAMS)

SAN FRANCISCO — (Special)—Opium is the drug of the rich. It costs on an average of $20 a day to use it. It retails most places at $350 per half pound tin. The "smoker" pays $1 a card and $1 for his "lay down" and "lay out" — use of the bank and opium lamp and pipes.

The drug is invariably served on a playing card. It takes four or five cards to give the average smoker anything like a "kick." At last 30 minutes must be consumed before the user can experience the soft, warm glow and a general feeling of content and peace which the deadly poppy brings to its slaves in exchange for their bodies and souls.

There are no dreams to opium. Neither are there dreams to the users of other drugs. Pipe dreams are the figment of the imagination of fiction writers.

MUST BE ADEPT

A smoker to get the biggest "kick" out of his pipe, must be skillful not only in the cooking of the tiny pellets of the drug, but in the actual handling and smoking of his pipe.

Old time smokers draw in deep draughts of the drug with one quick intake of their breath. The amateur, catching his breath, loses the greater portion of his pill in the fire. The opium waste forms ashes about the bowl of the pipe which the canny Chinese who run the "joint" later utilizes as "yen shee."

"Yen shee" finds its way again on the market as a second grade opium which poorer smokers buy and use.

Half the dope fiends of our big cities at one time or another smoked opium on pleasure parties. Its hold on the victim is subtle and slow—but deadly.

THEY LIKE COMPANY

Opium smokers like company. Unlike cocaine and morphine users, they are neat and cleanly in their habits. They are inclined to wear not only good clothes, but silks and satins of bright and varied hues.

Opium smoke has a tendency to float downward instead of upward. It will escape thru the tiniest crack. A smoker on the sixth story of an apartment house may be given away by the fumes escaping thru a crack in his window and going to the sidewalk in almost a straight line.

The fumes of the drug are at first pleasant, then sweet and finally sickening to the non-addict, but to the man or woman with "the habit" or a "yen" they sharpen the inner craving for the stuff and set the senses tingling for deep draughts of the drug.

$2,000,000 FOR BUILDINGS

Student Aid Found Will be Increased $100,000

OBERLIN, Ohio, (Associated Press)—A campaign to raise $4,500,000 for endowments, student aid and new buildings is to be conducted by Oberlin College, President Henry Churchill King announced to alumni and former students, here today to discuss the college's financial situation in connection with the ninetieth annual commencement program. The campaign will be launched next fall and will be world-wide in scope.

Of the amount to be raised $3,000,000 will be set aside for college endowment, a similar amount will be used for new buildings, $300,000 toward endowing the Oberlin Conservatory of Music, and $100,000 to increase the funds to aid self-supporting students. The new structures will include a large recitation hall; a women's gymnasium building; for the Graduate School of Theology, an addition to the library and additional dormitories.

DEFICIT CREATED

The campaign for endowment is made necessary at this time to cover the costs of salary increases made several years ago at the time the college began to receive income from the bequest of the late Charles M. Hall, who left in trust for Oberlin industrial stocks valued at approximately $3,000,000. Since the salary increases were granted the annual income from this source has fallen off from $184,000 in 1917-18 to $84,000 in 1921-22, a loss which made it necessary for the college to operate under a heavy yearly deficit, despite increased tuition fees and drastic curtailment of the operating budget.

Dr. King reported that, after consideration of the serious needs of the institution, the general education board of New York has agreed to give Oberlin $500,000 for funding salary increases already made on the condition that at least $1,500,000 more is raised for this purpose.

Congressman Theodore E. Burton is honorary national chairman for the campaign. Miss Katharine Wright of Dayton is national chairman for the women's division and Mark L. Thomson of Cleveland, is national chairman of the men's division. Alumni living in every state in the country and in many foreign countries are to be mobilized for the drive. Approximately 1300 former students already have accepted positions as chairmen.

TOOK 3 TO HOLD HIM IN BED

Had Awful Stomach Pains and Was Told It Would be the End of Him

RELIEVED BY PLANT JUICE

"I was flat on my back in bed for over a month because of my stomach trouble and was told that I could not live but your remedy, Plant Juice, brought me right out and I am now feeling like an entirely different man."

HENRY W. TERRY

These were the words of Mr. Henry W. Terry, of 223 Morton avenue, New Albany, Ind., during a recent interview with The Plant Juice Man, who is now in Lima at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, where he is daily meeting large crowds of local people and explaining his surprising remedy.

"I first began to suffer with my stomach about three years ago," Mr. Terry continued, "and was told that my trouble was caused by ulcers and that I was in danger of having a cancer in my stomach. I lost weight and couldn't do any work and had to give up my work for three months. All I could eat was milk and light cereals. I suffered all the time from pains in my stomach and never felt well or strong and finally I got down in bed and lay there, flat on my back, for over a month. I was told that I could not live and I suffered such intense pain at times that it took three people to hold me down."

"The benefit Plant Juice brought me was far better than I ever expected. I can eat almost anything I care for now without any bad after effects and I feel so well that I can do a hard day's work and not feel tired out afterward. I really feel like a different man—feel better than I have for a long time—and I certainly do not hesitate to make this statement and recommend Plant Juice to everybody."

The Plant Juice Man is at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, Lima, where he is daily meeting the local public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Free samples given.

Plant Juice is sold also in Lima at Hunter's drug store at Main and Wayne streets and at the Argonne drug store, opposite Post Office—Adv.

Society News

ONE of the most elaborate social affairs of the summer was the reception at the Shawnee Country club, Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. J. D. S. Neely presiding. Standing in the living room of the club, before an attractive screen made of garden flowers, Mrs. Neely received nearly two hundred women between the hours of 3 and 5 and presented to them her house-guest, Mrs. A. E. Clutter of Los Angeles. The main room of the club house, always attractive, was beautifully decorated with various kinds and shades of garden flowers in wicker baskets, while tall palms were placed effectively about. A trio of stringed instruments, concealed behind a lattice work of spring flowers and palms, played during the reception. Miss Mary Dunlap and Miss Betty Neely of Tulsa, Okla., presided at the punch bowl.

The table laid in the private dining room, where a buffet tea was served during the afternoon, was most artistic. A large platter basel filled with various hues of unusual flowers was used as a centerpiece, while periwinkle candles, tied with tulle of corresponding shades, burned at either end of the table. Assisting during the afternoon were Mrs. Edna Neely Rogers, Mrs. E. A. Youhn, Mrs. Roy Huffer, Mrs. R. D. Kahle and Mrs. Lillian Demmon.

Numerous affairs will be given during the coming two weeks for the pleasure of Mrs. Clutter, who is a former resident of this city.

Miss Thos. J. Hoffman and Mrs. W. L. Ayres will entertain the members of their bridge club at the Barr Hotel on Wednesday. Three tables will be filled for the bridge games, following the one o'clock luncheon.

Mrs. M. L. Waugh, 212 N. West-st., has as her house-guest, Mrs. Gertrude McKnight of Vancouver, B. C.

Mrs. Samuel Swartz and son, Abner of Jackson, Mich., are visiting at the Louis Swartz home, W. Market-st.

James B. Robinson and daughter, Miss Jane, left Tuesday for their home in Tulsa, Okla., after visiting for a few days with Mr. Robinson's brothers, Dr. Forster Robinson of V. Medical-st. and Harry Robinson of W. Market-st. Miss Robinson has recently graduated from Mt. Vernon National Seminary, Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Eggert N. Zeltitz has invited a few friends to her home in Shawnee for luncheon on Wednesday, in compliment to Mrs. A. E. Clutter, Los Angeles, Cal., the house-guest of Mrs. J. D. S. Neely, S. Cole-st.

Mrs. Claude Gamble, N. Metcalf-st., will entertain the members of the Pleasant Hour club on Thursday, instead of Wednesday, as originally announced.

Miss Hazel Robertson, 129 W. Kibby-st., returned on Monday from Dayton, where she visited over the week-end with her brother, Raymond E. Robertson and family.

The date for the benefit bridge party to have been given on June 26 at the Shawnee Country club, by the members of the Mercy Circle of King's Daughters has been changed until July 10.

Miss Frank Kominski is chairman of the committee in charge of the affair.

Missionary Society of Olivet Presbyterian church will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Isaac Miller, of S. Broadway.

Miss Marjorie Howe, daughter of McCabe Howe, N. Collett-st., left Tuesday morning for a week's visit with friends and relatives in Kansas City.

Mrs. J. C. Nagelson, N. Collett-st., and her guest, Miss Mabel Isabel of Columbus, will motor to Sidney on Wednesday to visit for a few days.

Miss Dorothy Kahle, W. Market-st., left on Tuesday to accompany her cousin, Billie Everett, to Hamilton, Ontario. Miss Kahle will visit in New York City before returning home.

A group of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Seals, Marquette-apt., Monday evening, the affair being planned in honor of the wedding anniversary of the Seals. Tables were arranged for the bridge games and at the conclusion of the playing, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beam held high scores. Mr. and Mrs. Seals were presented with a gift.

Guests included intimate friends of the host and hostess, who were away, until the appointed time, of the informal affair.

Mrs. William Hugh Duffield has issued invitations for a luncheon bridge to be given at the Shawnee Country club on Wednesday, June 26 at one o'clock.

Miss Gladys Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Anderson, became the bride of Doyle S. Duv, 818 Holly-st., Sunday morning at 9 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents in Elida. Rev. F. G. Boroff, pastor of the Methodist church of Elida officiated at the ceremony. There were no attendants and the wedding was witnessed by only a few close friends and relatives.

The bride's wedding gown was of gray crepe de chine and her bouquet of gray roses and valley lilies. At the wedding breakfast, where covers were laid for 25 guests, pink and white were the predominant colors.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home in this city.

Add-A-Stitch club members will meet at the home of Mrs. Walter L. Stokes, W. Wayne-st., Wednesday afternoon.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart: I HAVE read many of your letters and answers in The Lima News. I enjoy thoroughly everyone's thoughts on the "men proposition."

I, too, have wondered like so many girls, whether there are good men in this day and age. Of course, one will have to confess they are here, but where? I am 20 and certainly do like to have good times, eat a dice, in a clean way. I detest the "sheik type" who think a party is not complete without a shining bottle in one of the pockets of the car. I feel safe in saying the average young man does not permit a girl the chance to display her beaux esprits and friendly admiration. He escorts her to a theatre or a dance, then a coca cola and then he expects to be duly paid; if the girl shows her individuality and savoir faire, inasmuch as not acting kisses, or any liberties, the young man becomes irritable and then he drops! They think there are others who will appreciate their caresses and humpers.

It seems to me the men are very selfish, seeking things for their pleasure only. The world is full of good and bad, but so far the percentage of bad surpasses that of the good, to my knowledge. Perhaps I am rash in my statement. I think the word "respectable" is passe to most men. Do you think shall ever meet a man with traits that are superior to the above mentioned?

What do you think of my penmanship? "ENFANT GATE."

Your letter comes to me like beam of sunshine from a sky which has been filled for many hours with low-hanging clouds. Each day I receive letters from girls who are in trouble; from young girls who want to leave home; girls who wonder whether it is proper to joy-ride with married men.

That is why I say that your letter is a most welcome one. I'm sure that some day you will find your ideal man. Your man of dreams is waiting for you and time will show you that there is one course which in the end brings happiness; that is the honest, straight, careful course.

You don't like the "sheik type" of fellow. There are many girls who don't. But, they had to be here; the cycle of time wouldn't have been complete without them.

Good men, like good deeds, aren't on top of the houses shouting their own praises. That's why you haven't found very many of them. Respectability never has and never will be "passe".

Stick to your respectable ways, develop your personality and some day you'll be glad you haven't fallen for the "sheik." Because as Tennessee said in "Locke's Hall":

"As the husband is, the wife is; thou art mates with a clown, And the grossness of thy nature will have weight to drag thee down."

Dear Miss Smart: A notice in your column on Sunday a letter signed X. Y. Z. and I surely would like to meet him for I am a widow, age 38, do not dance but go to church and Sunday school, to, and I believe our tastes are in common. I please publish this letter in your column and if X. Y. Z. answers please give him my name, or better, send me his.

I am sorry but I do not have the address or name of X. Y. Z.

WIDOW.

BOY SCOUTS AID IN MALES HUNT

Troops From Three Cities Search Country at Night

Lima scouts formed one of three contingents of scouts who fruitlessly scoured the countryside Monday night for Loyal Males, missing Lima youth who disappeared from Delphos early Sunday morning after the auto crash in which his companion, Roy Neal, was severely injured.

A hurry call was received from Delphos scouts at 7 p. m., C. L. Conrad stated and within 45 minutes, 40 scouts had assembled at headquarters. They were equipped with flashlights, loaded into waiting cars and taken to Elida.

Spreading in skirmish line on either side of the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks, the scouts searched a wide territory.

Communication was maintained by means of a system of flashlight signals and whistles. The Lima party searched the territory from Elida to Delphos. Delphos scouts worked from that city to Van Wert. Van Wert scouts searched from Van Wert on westward.

Accompanying the local scouts and directing the search were: H. E. Simonson, H. A. Grider, Will Schroeder, John T. Carter, C. L. Conrad, R. A. Conroy and Simon Blattner.

The local scouts were divided into separate searching squads. Conrad stated, and work of the boys was very efficient. Liaison was maintained at all cross roads and as the search progressed each unit was kept informed of the actions of other units.

The searching party returned to Lima at 1:30 a m.

WOMAN FAILS IN HER ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE

OWENSBORO, Ky. — Mrs. Cleveland Daugherty, 25, Breckenridge-co, will recover from effects of self-administered poison, according to reports here today.

The attempt at self-destruction followed an attack with a razor upon her husband, Cleveland Daugherty, 30, in which she seriously wounded him and then killed her 10 little daughters, 5 and 3, by slashing their throats from ear to ear, it is said. Authorities believe Mrs. Daugherty suddenly became insane.

Daugherty, following his wife's attack upon him, disarmed her and ran to a neighbor's home for help. Mrs. Daugherty obtained another razor and during her husband's absence, killed her two daughters. When Daugherty returned he found her suffering from effects of poison.

CITIZENSHIP'S DUTY

FROM the time of the inception of our government there have been courts and juries within these courts, to try cases. And from the time of the first jury there have been persons who seek means of avoiding service when tribunals are called.

During the past week there was presented in criminal court a very clear example of this sort of situation.

A list of 18 prospective jurors to try a case was drawn. Within a few hours after they had been notified, men and women began calling Judge E. J. Jackson and asking to be excused for this or that reason. One woman said she was entertaining and would be unable to be present.

One man, no doubt a fine citizen otherwise informed the court that if he left his work his firm would lose some money. "The plant can't get along without me," he declared. "I'm in charge, but there are laborers here who could serve and the loss would be only a few hours' work to them."

That citizen's contention is unfair. He believes a few dollars more or less in the treasury of his firm is worth more than a few hours work representing a few dollars to some worker who toils early and late. This man puts the dollar over and above his duty as a citizen.

But if his firm had a case in court, wherein a jury was necessary, he would expect others to drop their accustomed duties and hear patiently the evidence in the case, being given a small pitance for their time.

Real citizens forget personal advantages in their unselfish cooperation to help the entire community.

FORD NOT A CANDIDATE

HENRY FORD has just announced that he will not be a candidate for the presidency of the United States. The Detroit flivver maker says he has no desire to hold that high office.

If we could bring ourselves to the point of believing that Henry actually will not be a candidate, we would not shed tears. We have never believed the Dearborn genius in the manufacture of automobiles would be a whirlwind as president and we have given him credit with enough conceit to believe that he might make the race.

If he is not a candidate, the public will never be able to understand the high class advertising campaign his press agents and ad copy writers have been putting over during the last several months. Most of it has been free stuff, in newspaper parlance, for they have kept Ford before the people consistently thru one scheme or another.

Ford is a wonder in his line and indications are that his line is making automobiles.

BASIC THINGS

WHEN newspapers print editorials about sleep, food, general health and so on, maybe you wonder what such abstract subjects have to do with today's news. The answer is that these subjects are ALWAYS news, because they are the fundamentals of life. Most of the world's problems (which create today's news) are matters of health and spiritual daze. A full stomach, a good digestion and plenty of refreshing sleep will take the sting out of almost any kind of trouble-maker. Murder often is a matter of blood pressure.

BUSINESS FAILURES

NEARLY 1500 American business organizations failed last month. This broke all records for May, except the year 1922. When the creditors get a settlement with the May failures, they'll average about 50 cents on the dollar. Combined losses (excess of liabilities over assets) were less than 16 million dollars, or only 15 cents for every man, woman and child in the country. So don't lose any sleep about high commercial mortalities during May.

ESPERANTO AGAIN

THEY'VE been holding the international Esperanto convention in Germany. An excellent movement, this campaign for a common worldwide language. If all nations spoke the same tongue, there'd be less misunderstanding.

But Esperanto, eventually inevitable, will be slow in coming. "Patriotic" provincials fight to save the native language. Is it possible that even patriotism at times is a vice? Ultimate Esperanto will be telepathy taking the place of spoken words.

This game, "Where's the Ransom," the Chinese bandits play, isn't a Chinese game. It is Mexican.

Joe Jettinghof and Arnold B. King, the Delphos millionaires. Should N. W. Cunningham drop in, we'll call it a quorum and buy the Loco works. Harry McDonald, the newspaper financier; and here's Frank H. Downing, the next to the last of the old school statesmen. And the last strolling towards us is Charlie Evans himself. Saw, too, General George A. Hall, Sunday, in the Flag Day parade. Bob Shaw, who has shown how to stand 'em up so long, he can afford a vacation.

Strolled anon, with Allie Graham, the banker. The surge of trade in the new Retail district. But who hot the Ashton corner, the old Wheeler block? Aye, that's the question. Life scarred mothers with wearied babes, waiting for street cars. The motor age has passed them by. Wayne Wheeler was born a decade too late. Yet who knows. OXYGEN RATION

The vicious factor which makes a mile walk. A fifteen minute period of setting-up exercises is equivalent to a two mile walk. A nine-hole round of golf is equivalent to about quarter mile walk down hill; in 1-2 miles of straight walking. Changing a tire is equivalent to a flatting the tire is equivalent to walking from Chicago to New York with a short stop in Buffalo for lunch. A round of boxing is equivalent to mile walk. A set of tennis is equivalent to a three mile walk. A game of lawn bowls is equivalent to sliding down the cellar door.

Housekeepers and storekeepers often imagine they get considerable exercise walking about the house or the store every day. When we attach a pedometer to measure this exercise they generally cover about a mile—not the ten miles they estimate.

People who can afford their six miles of oxygen on the hoof will find considerable diversion and satisfaction in carrying a pedometer to tick off the miles and check up estimates of familiar distances. (Copyright, 1923.)

JUST FOLKS

BY EDGAR A. GUEST

RESIGNATION AND WORRY

I've made up my mind that I can not escape
The juggernaut forever.
Some motor car some day will mangle my shape.
Though at dodging I'm agile and clever;
Some day I shall falter and fall to be spry
And under the wheels of a car I shall die.

I had hoped I might peaceably pass in my bed,
But I know that the fates will not let me.

The time was my pet and peculiar dread
Was that some day a motor would get me,

But that I am resigned to—mid honkings and toots
And the squeaking brakes I shall die in my boots.

I expect to go down in the front of a car
Which some right-of-way demon is driving;

To be bumped off at last with a jolt and a jar,
To the shock of my beloved one surviving.

Now I wonder whenever I travel the street,
What kind of a car will knock me off of my feet.

Will I die 'neath a Buick, a Packard, a Paige,
Will an Overland batter and maim me?

Will a Lincoln bear down and rob me of age
Or a Cadillac limousine claim me—

Or will I be sent to make peace with my Lord
At the hands of a demon who's driving a Ford?

MRS. G. W. HALL SICK FOR YEARS

Wants Women to Know How She Was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lima, Ohio.—"Indeed, your medicine is all you say it is! I had very severe troubles such as we women often have, and could do no heavy work. I was sick for several years, and from reading you said I finally decided to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am now doing my own washing, which I haven't done for several years, and can walk long distances without those dragging pains and weak feelings. The Vegetable Compound is fine, and I never forget to say a good word for it to other women when they say they need something."—Mrs. G. W. HALL, 639 Hazel Avenue, Lima, Ohio.

There are many women who find their household duties almost unbearable owing to some weakness or derangement. The trouble may be slight, yet cause such annoying symptoms as dizziness, pains, weakness and a run-down feeling. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a splendid medicine for such conditions. It has in many cases relieved those symptoms by removing the cause of them. Mrs. Hall's experience is but one of many.

Quintessence of Romance in Ray's Latest Film

CHARLES Ray is said to do the greatest acting of his entire career in "The Girl I Loved," his second United Artists production, which comes to the Lyric theatre next week.

The work of the star is given added zest by the fact that "The Girl I Loved" is the story of the personal love affair of the poet James Whitcomb Riley, as related in his poem of that title.

The picture is the quintessence of romance, the tale of two masculine hearts that beat for one girl—one of them directly. The ardor of this one (enacted by Charles Ray) brings into the plot many terrific incidents which serve to bring the star forward as an actor of powerful emotional force.

Those who know film history will recall that it was a role of this kind seven years ago which, over night, lifted Ray into the front rank of stars. To the part of the lover in "The Girl I Loved," the popular actor now brings the experience of the intervening years. Although "The Girl I Loved" is tragically emotional, it has many light and gay moments. The picture's charm is heightened by one of the screen's most beautiful and talented actresses, Faye Ruth Miller. She is said to give a fine account of herself in the scenes which carry her through the play in almost equal prominence with the star.

"The Girl I Loved" has both romance for the women and "punch" for the men. It is Charles Ray's second under his United Artists contract, which calls for productions of the biggest calibre. It was directed by Joseph De Grasse, who made "A Tailored-Made Man" and others of Ray's finest films.

er board members, Craig cried: "I say you are a dirty liar when you say what you do."

The gist of a remark about the mayor's "friends down in Wall street" was lost in the ensuing uproar. After the mayor had called the comptroller a liar once more and the comptroller had failed to get action on a motion to adjourn "to give me a chance to make good" presumably with his fists, excitement simmered down and business was resumed.

BOY OF 13 BEGINS ON JOB AT $1,000 A WEEK

LOS ANGELES—Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., 13, son of the motion picture actor, Douglas Fairbanks, arrived from Chicago today with his mother, Mrs. Joseph Evans, to begin a picture as the hero of a series of "The Typical American Boy." His contract with the famous Players-Lasky Corporation is said to call for a salary of $1,000 a week "with opportunity for advancement."

GAS RATE BOOSTED
COLUMBUS—Portsmouth will have a gas rate of forty cents per thousand cubic feet as a result of the action of the supreme court today in affirming the decision of the state public utilities commission setting that price. The city council had set the rate at thirty cents but this was increased by the utilities commission.

Your statement shows what kind of a liar you are," the mayor retorted, flushing red.
"You can't call me a liar," shouted the comptroller.
"You are a liar," the mayor insisted.
"Now I ask you to step outside," yelled Craig, leaping to his feet. "We can settle it in the hall."

LIQUOR MYSTERY IS SOLVED

Alien Ship Rum to be in Care of Doctor

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — A part of the mystery which has surrounded the latest treasury move in the ship liquor controversy was dispelled today by a declaration in official circles that hereafter the ship's doctor on a foreign ship will be given custody in American waters of such liquor as he is willing to certify is for "medicinal purposes."

Altho no one at the treasury would discuss the development in detail it was assumed that under this policy it will be possible for foreign ships to bring in wine rations for their crews under seal, provided the doctor in charge chooses to regard the intoxicants so carried as "medicinal."

MELLON'S CONSTRUCTION
A letter sent by Secretary Mellon to the public health service constitutes a construction of medicinal provisions of the law and makes sure that all foreign laws requiring ships to carry medicinal liquors will be complied with. By those instructions, a ship's doctor may make a sworn statement as to the liquors they deem necessary for medicinal purposes and public health officers will not dispute their opinion.

The letter is not regarded at the treasury as changing any section of the regulations as recently promulgated to carry out the findings of the supreme court. It is conceded, however, that it will work for elasticity in the regulatory provisions.

FORECAST OF PEST FOR OHIO IS VERIFIED

CINCINNATI.—The prediction by the Wooster Ohio Agriculture Experiment Station that the 17 year locust again would be a pest this year in Ohio has been verified in certain sections of Hamilton-co within the last few days, according to Country Agricultural Agent W. E. Stone. He said the locusts have come from the ground in large numbers in the eastern section of the county and that if they spread they will be a serious menace to fruit crops.

Then how important it is to have such furniture for it as best express those qualities. Our furniture is more than a commodity; it is more than comfort—it is companionable.

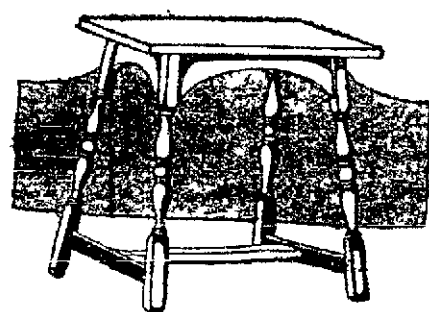

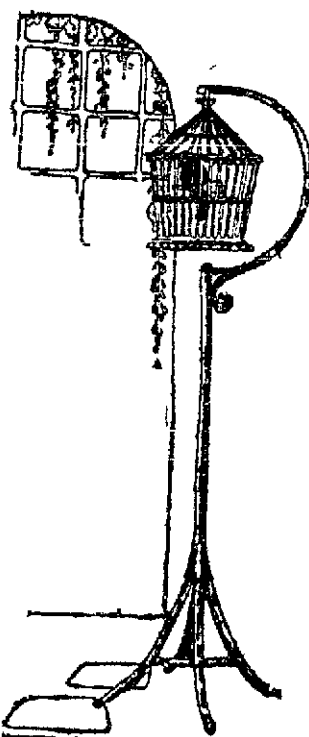

Morning Room Furniture

On a June morning, picture the gentle breezes blowing into the room, with strawberries and cream. My, this is the life that's worth living. We want you to see one particular Breakfast Suite, we call it the VANITY FAIR, in Ivory and Black, with flowers painted on a black ground. a home seems with just a wee canary bird in it that chirps and twitters whether the sun shines or the clouds hover overhead.

These Bird Cages are made of Reed and very gracefully designed. They come in green, ivory and natural. The cage may be detached from the stand.

Occasional Tables

We have gathered together many odd little tables that fit into that little corner that mi-lady has looked long for. Most any period that you might wish for. Tables that will prove "hair-locks" in the years to come. $3.50 to $25. Modest enough in price, aren't they?

SHORT SHAVINGS

Policeman Bill Houtz reports a man who drank his rum as a spring tonic and went to sleep in the park. "He was a prudent man," Houtz declares. "He curled up around a tree to sleep, so he wouldn't roll into the lake."

Miss Carolina Hughes had a stairway cut in her house at Pavonia. When the carpenters opened a cased garret they found a hen's nest with three eggs in it. They handled the eggs with care. They had been there since the house was built in 1842.

"Chick" Wise, hall porter, tells that as he was passing a place where a sign painter was painting a legend for a business firm, he heard this conversation:

"Say," said a stranger accompanied by a small boy, "maybe you got a job for my son. He's a good sign painter."

"Is he a journeyman?"

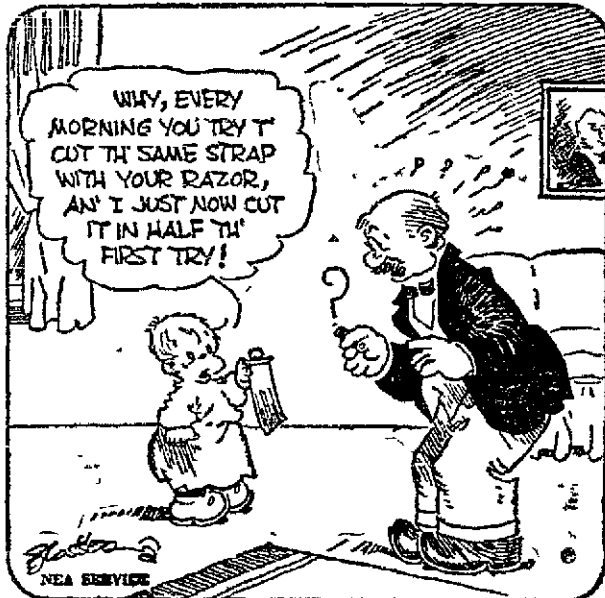

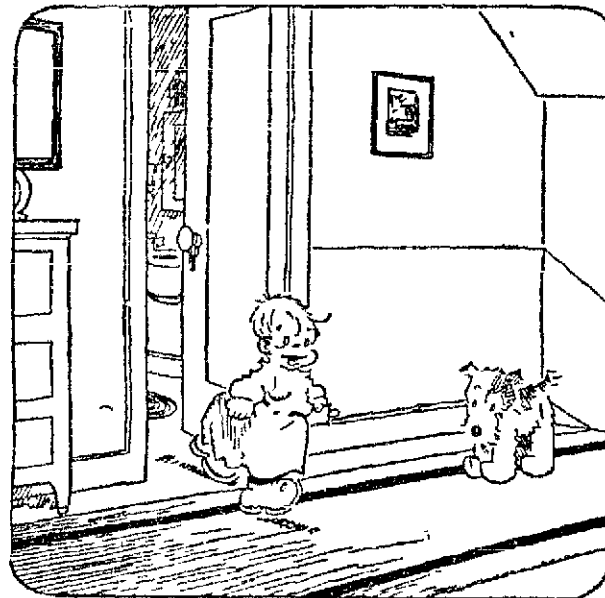

"No, he's a Swede."

H. J. Eiderman, clothier, set a basket containing groceries down on the sidewalk while he talked to a friend. A stranger picked up the basket and started off with it. "I saw he was going my way," the clothing man is reported to have said, "so I didn't claim the basket until he arrived in front of my house with it."

Miss Esther Haffner, clerk in criminal court, records the confession of a girl friend who put a nickel in the slot to work a candy machine in a store.

But nothing came out when she pulled the lever. She asked the cashier about it.

"That was the wrong slot," said the cashier. "It started the electrical piano. That was the music you heard."

Rev Wesley Ladd, of the African Baptist church, Bellefontaine, found six jugs of corn whiskey in his cellar when he returned home from a visit to other towns in Ohio.

Whoever had parked the liquor

there was out of luck, for Rev. Ladd turned the whole store over to Police Chief Lamborn.

Judge Kent Hughes relates the predicament of a friend in his neighborhood who owns a young canary bird.

It will sing only when inspired by the ringing of an alarm clock. "Some other way to start it singing must be found," the owner says. "One gets tired of hearing the alarm clock go off."

Karl Timmermeister, prosecuting attorney of Auglaize-co at Wapaknetta, told a friend a joke, but the friend didn't laugh.

"What's the matter," asked Timmermeister, registering surprise; "Is the joke old?"

"Old? No. It isn't old. I haven't got it yet."

Where the Sun Sinks Into the Sea

FOR six hundred miles and more, the Oregon-Washington coast overlooks the Pacific Ocean. It is mostly a high and rocky coast of towering cliffs and bold headlands, against which the breakers dash unceasingly.

Along this coast are stretches of sandy beach, some of them only a mile or two long, while others are ten times that length. Back of them are mountains and wooded hills, over and through which trails wind in all directions.

Of these sandy beaches, the most accessible, the most highly developed and the pleasantest, are Seaside and Gearhart, Oregon; and Moclips, Hoquiam and North Beach, Washington. These are the "Atlantic Clides of the Pacific."

North Pacific Coast

Very low round trip rates are in effect, May 15th to September 30th, to the Pacific Northwest. These—from Lima—give you an idea of how little it will cost you to spend your vacation in the Northern Pacific Country:

A Gear needs all its Teeth - so does Gasoline

Just as a gear wheel needs an unbroken succession of sound teeth, so gasoline must have a complete chain of boiling points to provide complete motoring satisfaction. It must have a low initial boiling point to make it vaporize easily and start motors quickly, a continuous chain of gradually rising boiling points that it may burn up clean and give smooth, fast acceleration, and the proper body of higher boiling points to produce the great heat that means full power, big mileage and long-run economy. Red Crown Gasoline is famous for its "complete chain of boiling points." It is always dependable—always high-grade fuel—whether bought at one of the 400 Standard Service Stations or from any of the many Red Crown dealers in the State.

5 Grades Polarine Motor Oils

Polarine Motor Oils are supplied in five grades to insure correct lubrication of every type of motor. Polarine Transmission Lubricants and Greases provide perfect lubrication of all transmission units. And the Polarine Chart of Recommendations is a quick, sure guide to the proper grade for every part of your car. See the Polarine chart at any Standard Service Station—or at any store or garage where you find the Polarine sign.
